How to use POP [Purpose of Passage] cards:

1. Give a copy of the same POP card to each family member or friend to reflect on.

2. Ask one person to read the Bible passage out loud.

3. Starting with the youngest, invite each person to share their thoughts to a question on the reverse side.

4. Discuss what this passage means to you today.

5. Pray together.

For more information, see chapter 7 of As Light Lingers.

Jesus loved having deep, thought-provoking conversations with those around Him. We too can have such conversations, based on His Word.

FOR: families, couples, friends, & small groups.

for my thoughts are not your thoughts.
Nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
And my thoughts than your thoughts.
ISAIAH 55:8-9

Look, I go forward, but He is not there, and backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
When He works on my left hand, and He turns to my right hand,
I cannot behold Him; I cannot see Him.
But He knows the way that I take;
When He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.
JOB 23:8-10

Let not your heart be troubled, you believe also in Me.
In my Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there you may be also.
John 14:1-4

You are my lamp; O Lord, the Lord shall enlighten my darkness.
As far as God, His way is perfect; the word of the Lord is proven.
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.
"William Penn 23:1-34"
• Have you ever looked at the stars at night and wondered how far up heaven is?
• What might it be like for God to look all the way down to earth from heaven?
• Why are God’s thoughts different from our thoughts?
• What does this verse mean to us today? Why might we need to be reminded of this?

• What is Job talking about here?
• Have you ever wondered whether God is really still there? When?
• In what ways might God test us, as Job suggests?
• How can we become like gold? What does that mean?
• How can this passage encourage you today?

• What is one thing you’re most looking forward to about heaven?
• What kinds of things are troubling your heart at the moment?
• On a scale of one being very easy, and five being very difficult, how easy or difficult do you find it to believe in God and what He has said?
• What kind of place do you think Jesus is preparing for you right now? [For more details, see Revelation 21–22.]
• What kind of God cares so deeply for humankind that He would use all measures to secure our future in heaven with Him?
For that my Redeemer lives, and He shall stand at last on the Earth.

And after my skin is destroyed, this I know; that in my flesh I shall see God: whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another; how my heart yearns within me!

JOEL 1:15-17

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

For where your treasure is, there your heart will also be.

MATTHEW 6:19-21

Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

MATTHEW 7:7-8

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, 'He is my refuge and my fortress, my God in whom I trust.'

SURELY he will save you from the Fowler's snare and from deadly pestilence.

PSALM 91:1-3
• What is this passage talking about?
• Are you sure, like Job, that Jesus lives?
• Why is it important for Jesus to stand on this earth?
• Does this all seem a bit like a dream—a story you might have heard before that seems too good to be true? Why?
• How does your heart feel about this promise?

• What are some of the treasures in your life?
• What “treasure” is Jesus talking about here?
• What are the two options we have with our treasures?
• Which treasure is easier to store—the earthly ones, or the heavenly ones? Why?
• Does the treasure influence our heart, or does the condition of our hearts influence the kinds of treasures we seek?
